Sabino Canyon History

Chuck Vangelder from the East Mountain Historical Society will lead a discussion about the fascinating history of the area. The walk will take place on a newly developed two-mile single-track dirt trail. This event is FREE to the public, but space is limited. RSVP is required.

Come learn about this historic site including topics related to:

- Village of Sabino, early history
- Farming in the arid south west
- Riedmont Fur Farm
- Riedling family
- Edwards Sterling
- Current projects at Sabino Canyon Open Space

And more!

This workshop is developed in partnership with the East Mountain Historical Society, (www.eastmountianhistory.org).
